

Multi-annual Evaluation Programme (MEP) 2013 – 2015

Object of Evaluation	Year of initiation
Development Workers Comprehensive, long-term evaluation of volunteer services as implemented by German governmental and non-governmental organisations.	2013
Instruments of Technical Cooperation Evaluation of GIZ instruments, with respect to the recent merger of German governmental organisations for technical cooperation (GTZ, InWEnt, ded).	2014
Rural Development and Private Sector Promotion First evaluation: Ghanaian-German agricultural development programme, including review of linkages between rural development and wider private sector support Further evaluations: Kenyan-German agricultural development programme and other countries, tbd.	2013 2014
Health Sector Ongoing: Long-term evaluation (1980 – 2012) of German health sector support in Rwanda, including SWap and SBS Further evaluations: Interventions for HIV/Aids prevention in Southern Africa; Innovative health system approaches in Cambodia.	Ongoing from 2012 2013 2014
Mitigating and Adapting to Climate Change With a focus on selected renewable energy programmes.	2014
Aid for Trade With a focus on the portfolio of German Trade Related Assistance (TRA).	2014
Mobilising Capital Market Funds First evaluation: Instruments of financial cooperation leveraging capital market funds by German state funding, e.g. in of support small and medium-sized businesses. Further evaluations: DEG (Deutsche Investitions- und Entwicklungsgesellschaft) development contributions; structural funds.	2013 2015
Trilateral Cooperation Approaches in German Development Cooperation Evaluation or review, including cases of triangular cooperation with global development partners.	2013
Accompanying measures to General Budget Support in Southern Africa Evaluation of technical assistance from GIZ and KfW. Focus on policy dialogue, conditionality, public financial management (including support to auditor general's offices), strengthening of parliament and civil society. Builds on findings of joint evaluations on budget support. Possible extension of evaluation to Ghana and other African countries.	2013
Microfinance Impact evaluation of technical and financial cooperation programmes, possibly as systematic review (or building on existing reviews)	2014

Water and Sanitation Supply in Rural and Urban areas Rigorous impact evaluations or alternately systematic review of existing experimental evaluations, or combination of both.	2014
Peruvian-German Counterpart Fund With particular consideration of Fund sustainability and replication in other countries.	2013
Ghana Development Programme on Decentralisation As decision-making support for the future of the country programme of Germany in Ghana.	2014
Sustainable Economic Development in Myanmar With a focus on establishing prerequisites for measuring effectiveness (baseline, longitudinal view, theory of change), at inception of the German private sector and vocational training support programme.	2013
Regional Economic Integration in Sub-Saharan Africa With a focus on EAC-, ECOWAS- und SADC-support and possible consideration of comparator cases in the Caribbean and South East Asia.	2014
Baseline-Study DEval To update stocktaking of current evaluation practice in the German development cooperation system, perceptions of aid evaluation, etc., to provide a baseline for measuring the effectiveness and future reviewing of the institute's results.	Ongoing from 2012